

Current teaching: Dr. Garry Robins

Current research supervision

- Mr Sean Bergin, PhD student The application of social network analysis in the defence, security and law enforcement domains.
- Mr Peng Wang, PhD student. Bipartite graph models
- Mr Philip Castle, Honours student, Self monitoring in social networks

Coursework teaching

Undergraduate teaching (since 2007):

First level

- 2008-10: Quantitative methods, Mind Brain & Behaviour 1 (summer intensive course)
- 2008, 2010: Quantitative methods, Mind Brain & Behaviour 2 (summer intensive course)
- 2008-10: Quantitative methods, Mind Brain & Behaviour 1
- 2008, 2010: Quantitative methods, Mind Brain & Behaviour 2

Second level:

- 2012: Personality and Social Psychology 2
- 2007-2009: Quantitative Methods for Psychology 2
- 2009-10: Quantitative methods lectures, Biological psychology
- 2009-10: Quantitative methods lectures, Developmental psychology
- 2009-10: Quantitative methods lectures, Cognitive psychology

Third level

- 2010, 2012: Psychological science: Theory and practice

Fourth level

- 2012 Advanced design and data analysis
- 2011: Current topics in social psychology

Current Postgraduate courses:

- 2006-2012: Graduate Research Methods.

Updated 4 May 2012