

Graduate Seminar Program

GS50

MASTERS BY RESEARCH & PhD

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Students enrolled in a PhD or Masters by Research are required to attend the Graduate Research Seminar in their first year of enrolment and at least three other graduate seminars during their candidature.

- The Graduate Research Seminar is available on in semester 1 of each year.
- Research Seminars are run by staff periodically throughout the year (for further details see the PG handbook). A list of seminars for the year will be emailed to students and posted on the graduate noticeboard.
- Students may be permitted to enrol in cognate courses within or outside the Department
- Certain postgraduate coursework subjects may also be chosen as research seminars.

Students wishing to undertake seminars should complete this form and return it to the Postgraduate Programs Officer, Psychology Office, at least two weeks prior to the commencement of the semester in which the seminar is offered. Please note that choice of research seminars must be made in consultation with your supervisor(s).
